

WILSON LEARNING EUROPA ANNOUNCES
PARTICIPATION IN THE BELGIUM & NETHERLANDS
CHAPTERS OF THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE .

22ND August 2006, Beaconsfield, Bucks, UK:

Wilson Learning Europa - EMEA operation of global HPI Providers Wilson Learning Worldwide - today announces their participation in the Project Management Institutes Benelux Day 2006.

The Belgium & Netherlands chapters of the Project Management Institute (PMI), a global organization whose mission is to world-wide encourage companies to embrace, value and utilize project management as a key means to achieve the corporate objectives, will organize its yearly PMI Benelux Day congress on October 7th 2006.

The expectations of the project team are that 250 highly professional project managers from Belgium and The Netherlands will attend this free congress. This years theme is: 'Globalisation: Is the Project Manager (un)touchable?'

The company is delivering three, highly interactive training presentations at the event focusing on 'Negotiation To Yes' and 'Global Awareness'. These sessions are to be delivered by Peter Bailey, Derek O'Brien and Antonio Diaz-Deus. The three workshops will cover the topic 'Negotiation from Asia through Central Europe to Latin America'. In the parallel workshops, the project managers must receive best practices to negotiate with these regions.

"Wilson Learning are delighted to be participating at this year's PMI Benelux Day. With up to 250 Project Managers expected to attend, the event is shaping up to be a great success and we are excited and proud to be involved."
